

Cape Cod Potters, Inc.

Cape Cod Clay Voice

Kevin Nolan Workshop

Kevin Nolan Workshop

Sunday October 28th

Location: Barnstable Pottery

Time: 10am to 4pm
Coffee and... 9:30am
Pot Luck Lunch

and water features (making water behave?).

The focus will be on sculptural fish fountains and birdbaths as well as functional and practical forms thrown off the hump.

Kevin will once again graciously host a workshop at his own studio. A few years back he hosted Dan Finnegan's workshop and was most accommodating. This time, we get to see Kevin make pots. For those of you who have never seen Kevin throw, this is your chance. When Kevin throws he is so relaxed, it seems effortless, watching the form take shape.

I have always wanted to see how Kevin creates his birdbaths and water features. Some are simple others are complex. Kevin will take us through the mechanics of his birdbaths

The workshop will also concentrate on the process of throwing with an emphasis on movement, posture, and practical body mechanics, in an effort to prevent back and upper body strain.

The workshop order form is enclosed with this mailing, additional forms are available at our website, www.capecodpotters.org

We will have a pot luck lunch, please bring something to share.

Special points of interest:

- Kevin Nolan workshop
- Pottery Exhibition
- Looking for...
- Fall Bulk Supplies order

Inside this issue:

| | |
|---------------------|---|
| Annual Seconds Sale | 1 |
| Kevin Nolan | 1 |
| For Sale | 2 |
| Executive meeting | 2 |
| Items of interest | 2 |
| Looking For... | 2 |

Workshop application enclosed

Annual Seconds Sale

Once again a small but dedicated group managed to pull off this years yard sale. A call went out at the last minute for more donations and several members came through with additional pots. We also moved the yard sale date this year to the last Sunday in September. Because of too many conflicts in October, this will probably be our new yard sale date. Many thanks also go to Rachel, John and Edward for accommodating this sale and allowing us to store pots at their house throughout the year. This year we raised $1300, which will go toward the various programs that we support.

Please consider playing a major roll in our pottery seconds sale next year by offering to help and by donating your pottery seconds.

Pottery Exhibition at the Cape Cod Museum of Art

This exhibition will take place from February 28 through April 12, 2009. In order to be eligible to have your work juried you must be member of the Cape Cod Potters in 2008. Make sure that you get your membership in on time. The deadline for membership is January the 31st, 2008. You will be sent membership application forms and they will also be on our website in December/January.

Pottery Exhibition Meeting at the Cape Cod Museum of Art

There will be a meeting at the Museum at 10am on Monday, November the 5th, 2007. The Curator, Michael Giaquinto, will talk about the exhibit, which gallery it will occupy, and what his expectations are for this event. Afterwards, we will continue with a planning session at The Mercantile over coffee.

Any potter who is interested in learning more details about the exhibition and is interested in helping with this event is welcome to come.

Fall Bulk Supplies Order

If you are interested in ordering in the Fall Bulk supplies order call Steve Kemp before Monday, October 22nd with your list. Please have your order ready when you call Steve. Call 508-855-5853

Looking For...

Studio Manager

The Cape Cod Museum of Art is looking for a part time clay studio manager to oversee the Harry Holl Sculpture and Clay Studio that is currently under construction. Applicant should be familiar with running and maintaining a clay studio for multiple classes, ordering materials and firing an electric kiln. Applicants should contact Linda McNeill-Kemp Education Director at 508-385-4477 ext.25.

Instructors

The Cape Cod Museum of Art is also looking for instructors in wheel and hand-building. If interested contact Linda McNeill-Kemp Education Director at 508-385-4477 ext.25.

Snooky

Invitation to dedication

The Cape Cod Potters are invited to the gardens at the Hyannis Library, located at 401 Main Street Hyannis. Tuesday October 16th at 3:30 by the family and friend's of Susan Souliotis. For a dedication of a granite bench and sundial in Susan's honor from the donations given in her memory.

Pottery Supplies

We are trying to help out Snooky's Brother Paul in dispersing Snooky's used pottery equipment. We have come up with the idea of a paper auction. Enclosed with this newsletter you will find an inventory list. The list includes a section that you may place a bid on any of items you may want. Then mail in the original sheets with the bidder information form. You will be contacted if you win an item. You will need to pick up the item(s) at a predetermined time and date in Hyannis MA. See the enclosed sheets for more information. Some pictures of the supplies are available at: www.capecodpotters.com/snook

Executive Meeting

The next meeting will take place at the home of Judith Bartha, 110 Lookout Road, Yarmouthport, MA. November 12th at 6:30. Everyone is welcome to attend. If you plan on attending please call Judith at 508-368-0010 so she has an attendee count.

For Sale

Castle Hill has a Bluebird Model 24 Stainless Steel clay mixer with an energy saving electric Leeson motor for sale. It is in good shape, and a lovely shade of orange. We are asking $1,500 - and would throw in several bags of RedArt if desired.

Castle Hill has 4 very well used, very well loved kick wheels to give away to a new owner who can pick them up. They are in varying degrees of "wonky-ness", but could be revived with a bit of work, grease, and love. Free to good home only.

Call Cyndi with any questions at 508-349-7511

Items of Interest

The Cape Cod Potters Executive Board again voted to join the Cape Cod Arts Foundation.

The Executive Board also voted to donate $1200 to the School-to-Careers Art Internship Program. To learn more about the program go to: www.cmfa.org/Art-Internship-Program.asp

We would like our members to know of a website, www.capecodculturalexplorer.org many of our members are listed and use the site.

