Diane Heart Workshop

*Diane Heart Workshop
Held at Creative Arts Center in Chatham
Sunday, February 3rd.
From 11:00 pm until 2:00 pm.
See Page 4 for directions.
Application enclosed*

Diane Heart will be showing slides and demonstrating at the Chatham Creative Arts Center before the Cape Cod Potters Annual Meeting. Making pots since 1976, included working at two production potteries, running a cooperative studio and lots of teaching. For the past ten years she has owned and operated

Heart Pottery in Brewster. Diane has worked almost exclusively in Porcelain for the past sixteen years and will share some of the "tricks of the trade" as well as things you "shouldn't" do that work! After some recent back problems, she will demonstrate throwing standing up, but, is relieved that her workshop is before John Glick's! The most important part of clay to her is the form itself. She enjoys changing the rims of pots, quickly carving leather hard clay and brushing glaze over glaze for a watercolor effect at cone 11 in her gas kiln. On her "days off" she loves with other Rakuing potters.

From the Vice-President

Everyone had a good time at the Cardinalli workshop. All the comments were positive. I always enjoy spending time with clay people and friends, talking pottery talk, watching someone work who truly loves what he does, and eating wonderful food. When I get back in my studio, I'm inspired to try new ideas, to reach out, and when I reel it back in, I find my work to have improved in some way. Wayne is a good teacher, a good potter, and a good friend, he had a great time too. Don't forget about the next two workshops coming up, Diane Heart and John Glick. I'm looking forward to both. I'd like to wish everyone a happy and peaceful New Year.

Please don't wait until October to drop them off. Eve's basement is open year round, just price the pots and drop them off, no need to bother Eve. Many Thanks.

Soup Bowls for Hunger 2002

It will be a great day when Soup Bowls For Hunger is no longer needed because no one is going hungry. This dream is still not a reality. So..... we need all your help with this annual fundraiser. For you new folks this event is put on by the Cape Cod Potters and the Cape Cod Regional Technical High School. The Cape Cod Five Cents Savings Bank underwrites all the expenses. We make the bowls and the School fills them with soup. Last year we raised over $9000 for the Family Pantry, which helps distribute food all over Cape Cod. This year the Soup Bowl For Hunger dinner will take place on Wednesday the 10th of April. You can help by donating bowls and or your time either that afternoon washing the bowls and setting up the dining room or that evening by helping to serve. We also desperately need one or two members to help with telephone calls, and to write "Thank you" notes. Nancy Craemer and Gail Turner are the co-chairs of this event. Nancy does the publicity and Gail is in charge of bowls and volunteers. If you can help, Gail's work number is 385.4214.

Nancy can be reached at 432.8817. All bowls are needed by April 1st and can be dropped at Heart Pottery, Route 6A Brewster or at Kemp Pottery, Route 6A Orleans, or at Ron Dean's Pottery, 1000 Osterville-West Barnstable Road, Marstons Mills. Each soup bowl should hold at least one and one half cups and have a little additional space so the soup does not spill when the bowl is carried to the table. We would like 6 bowls from each of you. We would love 12 bowls from most of you and 18 and above from any of you would be heaven.

This will be our 10th Year! So pat yourself on the back and use this opportunity to experiment with new bowl shapes and glazes.

And a BIG THANK YOU to everyone for their help with this event!

Thank You,
Gail Turner & Nancy Creamer
